UA Fraternity & Sorority Community

• The University of Alabama is home to 64 social Greek-letter fraternities and sororities, which range in size from 6 to 452.

• Governed by four different councils, these chapters provide leadership and involvement opportunities for close to 11,000 students as well outreach and community service opportunities to the Tuscaloosa community.

• Each council has a different focus, operational structure, history, recruitment or intake procedure, and key dates.

• Each chapter offers members a variety of opportunities to hold leadership positions in the chapter and at the University, participate in volunteer and service activities on campus and in the community, become involved in campus life and achieve success academically, personally and professionally.
Diversity and Inclusion

The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life (OFSL) and the UA Fraternity and Sorority Community are committed to being a welcoming and inclusive campus characterized by access and opportunity.

The OFSL desires to build a community that reflects diversity and inclusion within our sorority and fraternity chapters. We strive to make our campus stronger through our commitment to promoting diversity, encouraging Greek organizations to value quality of character rather than legacy status, and creating positive change within the Greek community. Students of all backgrounds make up UA’s Greek system and individuals are celebrated for their perspectives, ideas, personal merits versus familial relations, and their contributions to their organizations and to our community.

Joining a UGC Organization

Each organization that encompasses the United Greek Council has an individual recruitment process and depending upon the chapter, this process may be referred to as Recruitment, Membership Intake, or Rush.

• While most chapters recruit at the beginning of the fall and spring semester, each chapter’s process for taking new members varies in accordance with their specific needs and inter/national requirements.

• In order to join a UGC organization, prospective members must, at minimum, be an enrolled student at The University of Alabama; however, it’s important to note that additional membership requirements vary by chapter.

• Since membership in some UGC organizations is based on special interest, pursuing a specific major, and/or student involvement; students interested in joining a UGC organization should visit the chapter’s website and/or contact the chapter directly, regarding specific membership requirements.
UGC Informational/Interest Meetings

Individuals interested in joining a UGC organization, are encouraged to attend UGC events and/or events sponsored by the UGC member organizations.

- In addition to hosting tabling events and programs throughout the semester, chapters will also register different events on campus, many of which are advertised through The SOURCE, to recruit new members.

- Prior to attending an Informational/Interest Meeting, it is beneficial to visit the chapter and inter/national organization’s websites for additional information about specific membership requirements and recruitment events.

Recommendations/References

- A Letter of Recommendation/Reference (also called a REC or RIF) serves as your introduction to the sorority, allowing sorority members an opportunity to get to know you in advance of primary recruitment.
- These official forms, which are unique to each individual sorority, are provided by the inter/national organization for their alumnae members to fill out on behalf of PNMs.
  - Please note the UA Panhellenic does NOT have access to individual sorority Recommendation/Reference Forms.
- Securing Recommendations is ultimately NOT the obligation of the PNM, as such, below are a couple of things to keep in mind if you choose to seek out letters of recommendation:
  - PNMs are encouraged to only secure no more than ONE to TWO recommendations for each of the 17 NPC chapters recognized at UA, more than two per chapter is unnecessary.
    - If you cannot find a letter for each sorority at UA, please do not worry! If a sorority really wants to pledge someone and they have a policy that requires a PNM have at least one recommendation/reference form in order to be eligible for membership, they will find a recommendation for her.
  - As part of their recruitment registration form, PNMs may elect to attach a Supplemental Academic Letter of Recommendation from a teacher, guidance counselor, or principal.
    - The individual writing the letter of recommendation does not have to been a member of Greek organization; however, the letter should speak to your character as it applies to leadership, scholarship, community service, and friendship.
- It is strongly recommended that sorority specific Recommendations be mailed to the chapters using the local chapter mailing addresses found on the UA Panhellenic website by July 15th, to ensure they arrive and are reviewed prior to the start of Recruitment.
- For more information about Recs, please visit www.uapanhellenic.com/letters-of-recommendation.

- Parties are 50 minutes in length and PNMs may attend up to a maximum of 3 sororities on Preference Day, although it is typical for most women to have one or two parties.

- At the conclusion of Preference events, PNMs will meet to rank from favorite to least favorite their choices of which sororities they would be willing to accept a bid for membership.

What to wear: Nice dress and comfortable heels. Bring flip flops for use in between parties.

Friday, August 18

Bid Day is the culmination of the recruitment process in which the sororities all come together to welcome their newest members and celebrate the growth of the sorority community.

- Bid Day is scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 19, 2017 in Bryant-Denny Stadium.

- Bid distribution is typically followed by a brunch hosted at the sorority houses for the new members. Please note that due to space constraints, each new member is limited to 2 adult guests.

- Each new member will receive a Bid Day bag filled with goodies.

- Majority of New Member Retreats will be held on Saturday evening, immediately following Bid Day.

New Member Education Process
